Until all such documentation has been received and approved by the APCHA, in its sole and reasonable discretion, the tenancy shall be deemed to be month to month unless terminated based on noncompliance. Any change in roommates or persons occupying the Premises requires a requalification under the APCHA Guidelines of all the persons occupying the Premises. Roommates are permitted provided that they meet the requirements of the APCHA Guidelines and approved by APCHA prior to occupancy. This sum may be co-mingled by the APCA with other funds to the extent allowed by law and shall not be construed as being held in trust for Tenant. No interest shall be paid to Tenant on this amount. Upon the expiration or sooner termination hereof, the APCA may apply this amount toward unpaid rent or tenant's other financial obligations.

- 4.0 DEFAULT AND LATE CHARGES. Tenant shall be assessed a late charge of $75.00 if Tenant has not paid rent by the close of business on the Fifth (5th) of the month. If the 5th falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, rent will be considered late at the close of business the following business day. APCA's failure to collect any late charges that have accrued shall not be deemed to be a waiver of these charges and APCA shall be entitled to deduct all accrued and unpaid late charges out of Tenant's security deposit upon termination of this Lease. Late charges shall accrue as provided hereunder in any case where the full rent, or any portion thereof, due hereunder remains unpaid. Accordingly, partial payments of rent will not prevent the full late charge from being applied to the amounts due.

Note: All payments made are applied to past due amounts before they are applied to the current payment amount.

- 5.0 SECURITY DEPOSIT. Tenant on execution hereof, has paid to the APCHA $1,250.00 fee as a damage/security deposit for the faithful performance of the terms, conditions and obligations hereof, equal to one month's rent due at lease signing.

Security deposits shall not be considered as pre-payment of any rent or for payment of a last month's rent. This sum represents a security deposit as defined and described under the security deposit laws of the State of Colorado and may be co-mingled by the APCHA with other funds to the extent allowed by law and shall not be construed as being held in trust for Tenant. Proceeds from this deposit may be used to pay any amounts due to Landlord from Tenant by reason of Tenants' failure to perform any of the covenants or conditions contained herein. No interest shall be paid to Tenant on the security deposit. Upon the expiration or sooner termination hereof, the APCHA may apply this deposit toward unpaid rent, damages, cleaning, replacement, or other expenses or obligations of or chargeable to Tenant hereunder. This security deposit may also be applied to any unpaid miscellaneous fees due from the Tenant when incurred, including late charges. In the event that cause exists for retaining any portion of the security deposit, the APCHA shall, not later than 60 days after the expiration or sooner termination hereof, provide the Tenant with payment of the unused portion of this deposit and an accounting of deductions. Said sixty (60) day notice shall be deemed given upon check being made available for pickup at the APCHA office located at 18 Truscott Pl, Aspen, CO or by being shipped via prepaid trackable label provided to management by the tenant. This security deposit shall not be construed as liquidated damages and shall not impair or alter remedies otherwise available to the APCHA hereunder, or at law or in equity, including the right to proceed against the Tenant for rent, damages or expenses not adequately covered by the security deposit. In the event Tenant unlawfully attempts to terminate this lease or abandons the Premises, the APCHA shall be entitled to retain the entire security deposit.

- 5.1 In the event of default and failure to cure as described above, or if Tenant abandons the Premises, the APCHA, in addition to any other remedies available to it, may re-enter the Premises without any liability to Tenant therefor, and as agent for the Tenant or otherwise, re-let the Premises. The proceeds of any re-letting shall be applied first to the cost and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the APCHA in order to re-enter and re-let the Premises, and then to rent liabilities, expenses and other obligations of Tenant accrued subsequent to the date of re-entry. Tenant shall remain liable to the APCHA for all rent, liabilities, expenses and other obligations hereunder for which recovery is not made by the APCHA through re-letting as provided in this subparagraph.

Each Tenant shall be liable for the cost of repair of the damages resulting from or inflicted by an animal harbored or kept on the Premises, whether or not permission has been granted by the APCHA. At a minimum, this shall entail the professional cleaning of all the carpets upon the removal of the pet or the termination of the lease, whichever first occurs. Denial or cancellation of approval may occur upon receipt of complaints from other Tenants, uncontrolled behavior or damages on or to the Premises or any part of the Premises or property upon which the Premises are situated. Tenants are responsible for the presence of any animals in violation of this rule (this includes all animals that may be present, whether owned by Tenant, a friend or relative of Tenant, or some other third-party present on Tenant's premises), and will be assessed a fine of $200.00 for every violation of this rule. In addition, the presence of any animals in violation of this rule is considered a violation of the lease and may result in the termination or non-renewal of lease.

Any violation of these rules shall be deemed a material default under this lease. The APCHA may, by written notice to Tenant, alter or amend these rules, at which point the new rules shall be deemed incorporated into this lease.
- 7.4 Tenant shall not use nor permit the Premises, or any part of the Premises, to be used for any business purposes (except home occupations that may be permitted by the City of Aspen Municipal Code, without any signs or client traffic) or unlawful purpose of any sort.
- 8.0 CONDITION OF PREMISES. Tenant accepts the Premises in their present condition and state of repair without any warranties or representations of any nature whatsoever by the APCHA. Tenant hereby acknowledges that Tenant has inspected the Premises, and fixtures and that the same are in good condition and suitable for the use intended. Tenant further acknowledges that there is no damage to the Premises, furniture or fixtures at the commencement of this lease other than as specifically set forth in writing, signed by the parties at the commencement of this lease initialed by Landlord and Tenant. Tenant, at Tenant's own cost, agrees to maintain the Premises, together with all appurtenances thereto, all fixtures and appliances, in accordance with paragraphs 10.0 and 10.1, below, and shall at the expiration or sooner termination hereof deliver the same to the APCHA in their present condition and state of repair, reasonable wear and tear excepted. In addition, the APCHA may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice show the Premises to prospective Tenants during the last three months prior to the expiration of this Lease. This right of inspection shall not be construed to create any obligation upon the APCHA for the maintenance of Premises. In the event personal notice is not provided, notice shall be deemed to be effective and reasonable twenty-four (24) hours after posting written notice on the front door of the Premises. In Emergency Situations, 24-hour notice will not be required.

- 11.0 ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING. Tenant shall not lease, sublease, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise in any way alienate, hypothecate, encumber or suffer all or any part of the Premises or this lease to another person without the prior written consent of the APCHA which consent may be withheld or granted in the APCHA's sole, absolute and unqualified discretion. In order to obtain a parking sticker, the vehicle must be properly licensed, registered in Colorado, and in running condition. Any automobiles of Tenant's overnight guests must be parked off the Premises, unless, if space is available, such overnight guests may park as directed by manager provided the appropriate guest permit is displayed on the mirror of the vehicle. Only persons with a handicap designation may use the handicap spaces.
- Vehicles with loud mufflers or any other type of noisy mechanical attachment or defect will be removed from the property immediately upon receipt of written notification from management. The vehicle will not be returned to the property until written proof of repairs to correct the problem(s) has been approved by management.
- Due to the restricted amount of parking spaces, parking in front of the apartment buildings is for residents only. Guests must park their vehicle in parking spaces away from the buildings. It is the resident's responsibility to inform guests where to park.
- Management is not responsible for the safety or security of your vehicle(s) or your guest's vehicle(s).
- The parking or driving of commercial vehicles used by residents for work is prohibited within the boundaries of the property. All vehicles weighing more than 4,000 pounds are prohibited within the boundaries of the property except for the temporary delivery of goods or services to the property and/or residents.

- The driving, parking, and/or operation of any type of vehicle on the lawns or sidewalks is strictly prohibited. Vehicles may be operated on the driveways and parking lots only. - Large trucks, motor homes, boats and trailers, utility trailers, commercial vans and/or trucks, excavation equipment, or any commercial equipment is strictly

- prohibited from the property.
- Proper notice is considered properly served by posting written notice in an obvious location (front, back, or side windows) on the vehicle.

- 19.0 QUIET ENJOYMENT. Subject to the terms of this lease, and the faithful performance of Tenant's obligations hereunder, Tenant shall have quiet enjoyment of the Premises during the term hereof, provided however, that Landlord shall not be responsible for any disturbances caused to Tenant as a result of actions not directly attributable to Landlord, including without limitation, golf course use, maintenance, and repair, traffic noises, construction noises and other disturbances. In connection herewith, Landlord hereby represents, and Tenant hereby acknowledges that there is a certain amount of late evening and early morning maintenance activity on the golf course that may disturb Tenant, and Tenant hereby waives any claims against Landlord, the City of Aspen or the County of Pitkin for such disturbances.
- 20.0 JOINT AND SEVERABLE LIABILITY. In the event that more than one Tenant is obligated under the terms of this lease, each such Tenant shall be jointly and severably liable for the fulfillment of all of the obligations of this lease, including without limitation, the payment of rent and the payment of the Tenant's other financial obligations hereunder.
- 21.0 CASUALTY. In case of fire or other casualty, the Tenant shall give immediate notice to the APCHA. If the leased Premises are not livable as a result of fire, the elements or by any other cause not resulting from Tenants' neglect or default, the obligation to pay rent shall cease until the demised Premises shall be substantially repaired, whereupon the obligation to pay rent shall resume to the same extent and at the same rate as if the damage had not occurred. However, the obligation to pay rent shall not cease nor shall any reduction in the rental payment be made during the period that Tenant continues to reside in the Premises. In no event, however, shall the provisions of this clause become effective or be applicable if fire or other casualty or damage shall be the result of carelessness, negligence or improper licensees, invitees, subtenants, assignees or successors. In such case, the Tenant's liability for the payment of rent and the performance of all the covenants and conditions and terms hereof on the Tenant's part to be performed shall continue and the Tenant shall be liable to the APCHA for the damage and loss suffered by the APCHA, including all repairs and rebuilding expenses. The APCA shall not be responsible for any loss or damage of Tenant's personal property.

23.0 EXPIRATION AND TERMINATION. If there shall be a default in the performance of the payment of rent or any part thereof for more than ten (10) days after written notice of such default and opportunity to cure as provided according to Colorado law from Landlord or Landlord's agent to Tenant, this lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder shall terminate immediately. If there shall be a delinquency by Tenant in the performance of any other covenant, agreement, condition, rule or regulation herein contained or hereafter established for more than ten (10) days after written notice of such default and opportunity to cure as provided according to Colorado law from Landlord to Tenant, Landlord, or Landlord's agent, at any time thereafter may terminate this Lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder shall terminate immediately. If the Tenant has previously been served such 10-day notice and subsequently holds over without permission of the landlord contrary to the same covenant, this lease may be terminated at any time without an opportunity for the Tenant to cure the violation.

The abandonment of the premises by the tenant as defined in C.R.S. § 38-12-501, shall constitute a default under this lease and all rights of tenant shall there upon terminate.

Prior to expiration or termination, landlord may inspect the premises as provided in paragraph 11.0 above to determine compliance by tenant with the terms of this agreement, including but not limited to condition of premises.

Upon termination of this Lease for any reason, Tenant shall peacefully surrender the leased Premises to Landlord, and Landlord may, upon or at any time after such termination, without further notice, re-enter the leased Premises and repossess it, and may remove Tenant and all other persons and property from the leased Premises. Tenant shall be responsible for any and all costs and attorney's fees incurred by Landlord in enforcing the provisions contained in this paragraph. At any time after such termination, Landlord may re-let the leased Premises or any part thereof, in the name of the Landlord or otherwise for such term (which may be greater or less than the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term of this Lease) and on such conditions as Landlord, at his discretion, may determine, and may collect and receive the rents therefor. Landlord shall in no way be responsible for or liable for any failure to re-let the leased Premises or any part thereof, or for any failure to collect any rent due upon such re-letting.

No termination of this Lease shall relieve Tenant of Tenant's liability and obligations under this Lease, and such liability and obligations shall survive any such termination. In the event of any such termination, whether or not the Premises or any part thereof shall have been re-let, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the rent and other expenses required to be paid by Tenant until the end of the Lease term, including but not limited to all repossession costs, brokerage commissions, legal expenses, attorney fees, and the costs of preparing the Premises for a new tenant.

- 23.2 HOLDING OVER. Upon the expiration or sooner termination hereof, for any reason, Tenant shall immediately and without further notice from the APCHA surrender possession of the Premises to the APCHA. In the event Tenant does not so vacate the Premises, his holding over shall not be deemed a tenancy of any kind or nature whatsoever and Tenant shall be subject to eviction proceedings without further notice. For purposes of such proceedings, Tenant shall pay the fair rental value of the Premises for the period of such holding over. The Tenant stipulates that such rental shall be that charged at the same amount as for the most recent rented similar unit in Smuggler, or that amount provided for in this lease, whichever is greater. Payments made by Tenant(s) to the APCHA during such holdover shall be credited to against Tenant's obligation to pay the fair rental value of the Premises, but shall not create any rights in tenancy, of any kind or nature whatsoever, and Tenant shall remain subject to eviction without further notice. If Tenant remains on the Premises, the tenancy so created shall be a deemed a tenancy at will.
- 24.0 SUBORDINATION. This lease is and shall remain subject and subordinate to all mortgages or deeds of trust now or hereafter affecting the Premises or the building in which the Premises are located. Should Tenant fail to do so, Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints the APCHA as Tenant's attorney-in-fact to execute those instruments for and on behalf of Tenant.
- 25.0 INDEMNITY. Tenant hereby agrees to and does indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, causes, judgments or liability for any losses or damage to any property of, or any injury or death to, any persons in or about the Premises during the term of this Lease Agreement, including, but not limited to Tenant, Tenant's family, roommates, agents, servants, guests, licensees, or invitees; and further, Tenant shall indemnify Landlord for any payments, expenses, costs or attorney fees incurred by Landlord as a result of such losses, damages, injury or death.

- 31.0 NO SMOKING (effective 6/1/2020 for current tenants). Due to the increased risk of fire, increased maintenance costs, and the health effects of secondhand smoke, the Aspen Pitkin County Housing Authority (APCHA) is adopting the following No-Smoking Policy for its managed properties including Truscott, Aspen Country Inn, Marolt, and Smuggler which prohibits smoking in any interior common areas, including but not limited to community rooms, community bathrooms, lobbies, hallways, laundry rooms, stairways, offices and elevator, within all living units, and within 25 feet of building(s) including entry ways, porches, balconies and patios. This policy applies to all residents, guests, visitors, service personnel and employees. The term "smoking" means the emissions or release of gases, particles, vapors or aerosols into the air from burning, heating or activation of any device, including, but not limited to a cigarette, hookah, electronic smoking device, e-cigarette, vape pens, e-hookahs or any other product by any name or descriptor when the apparent or usual purpose of burning, heating or activation of the device is human tasting and inhalation.

Prohibition of Smoking in Most Areas Outside the Buildings – Smoking outside the building(s) shall be limited to specific area(s) as identified with signs located at the respective property. Smoking related products must be properly extinguished and disposed of in a safe manner. Residents, for example, may not throw cigarette butts on the ground.

The APCHA is not a guarantor of smoke free Environment – Resident acknowledges that the APCHA’s adoption of a No-Smoking policy, will not make the APCHA the guarantor of Resident’s health or of the smoke free condition of the non-smoking portions of the property. However, the APCHA will take reasonable steps to enforce the No-Smoking Policy. The APCHA is not required to take steps in response to smoking unless the APCHA has actual knowledge of the smoking and the identity of the responsible resident.

Resident acknowledges that the APCHA adoption of a non-smoking living environment, does not in any way change the standard of care that APCHA has under applicable law to render the property any safer, more habitable or improved in terms of air quality standards than any other rental premises. The APCHA specifically disclaims any implied or express warranties that the property will have any higher or improved air quality standards than any other rental property. The APCHA cannot and does not warranty or promise that the property will be free from secondhand smoke. Resident acknowledges that APCHA’s ability to police, monitor or enforce this Addendum is dependent in significant part on voluntary compliance by Residents and Resident’s guests. Residents with respiratory ailments, allergies or other condition relating to smoke are put on notice that the APCHA does not assume any higher duty of care to enforce this Addendum than any other APCHA obligation under the rental agreement.

Residents are responsible for the actions of their household, their guests and visitors. Failure to adhere to any conditions of this Addendum will constitute both a material non-compliance with the lease agreement and a series violation of the Lease Agreement. In addition, resident will be responsible for all costs to remove smoke odor or residue upon any violation of this Addendum.
