BYLAWS
OF
EAST COOPER COURT HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE 1 - INTRODUCTION

These are the Bylaws of East Cooper Court Homeowners Association, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "East Cooper Court"), which shall operate under the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act, as amended, and the Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act, as amended, hereinafter referred to as the "Act."

ARTICLE 2 - BOARD

2.1 Number and Qualification--Termination of Declarant Control.

(a) The affairs of East Cooper Court shall be governed by an Executive Board which, until the termination of the period of Declarant control, shall consist of three (3) persons, and following such date shall consist of such number as may be determined by the members of the Association, being not less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) Directors, the majority of whom, excepting the Directors appointed by the Declarant, shall be Lot owners. If any Lot is owned by a partnership or corporation, any officer, partner or employee of that Lot owner shall be eligible to serve as a Director and shall be deemed to be a Lot owner for the purposes of the preceding sentence. Directors shall be elected by the Lot owners, except for those appointed by the Declarant. At any meeting at which Directors are to be elected, the Lot owners may, by resolution, adopt specific procedures which are not inconsistent with these Bylaws or the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act for conducting the elections.

(b) The terms of the Directors not appointed by the Declarant shall expire annually.

(c) The Declaration shall govern appointment of Directors of the Executive Board during the period of Declarant control.

(d) The Executive Board shall elect the officers of the Association. The Directors and officers shall take office upon election.

(e) At any time after Lot owners, other than the Declarant, are entitled to elect a Director, the Association shall call a meeting and give not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days' notice to the Lot owners for this purpose. This meeting may be called and the notice given by any Lot owner if the Association fails to do so.

2.2 Powers and Duties. The Executive Board may act in all instances on behalf of the Association, except as provided in the Declaration, these Bylaws or the Act. The Executive Board shall have, subject to the limitations contained in the Declaration and the Act, the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and of the East Cooper Court, including the following powers and duties:

(a) Adopt and amend Bylaws and Rules and Regulations;

(b) Adopt and amend budgets for revenues, expenditures and reserves;

(c) Collect assessments for common expenses from Lot owners;

(d) Hire and discharge managing agents;

(e) Hire and discharge employees, independent contractors and agents other than managing agents;

(f) Institute, defend or intervene in litigation or administrative proceedings or seek injunctive relief for violations of the Association's Declaration, Bylaws or Rules in the Association's name, on behalf of the Association or two (2) or more Lot owners on matters affecting East Cooper Court;

(g) Make contracts and incur liabilities;

(h) Regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement and modification of Common Elements;

(i) Cause additional improvements to be made as a part of the Common Elements;

(j) Acquire, hold, encumber and convey, in the Association's name, any right, title or interest to real estate or personal property, but Common Elements may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest only pursuant to Section 312 of the Act;

(k) Grant easements for any period of time, including permanent easements, and grant leases and licenses through or over the Common Elements;

(l) Impose and receive a payment, fee or charge for services provided to Lot owners;

(m) Impose a reasonable charge for late payment of assessments and, after notice and hearing, levy a reasonable fine for a violation of the Declaration, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of the Association;

(n) Impose a reasonable charge for the preparation and recording of amendments to the Declaration or statements of unpaid assessments;

(o) Provide for the indemnification of the Association's officers and the Executive Board and maintain Directors' and officers' liability insurance;

(p) Exercise any other powers conferred by the Declaration or Bylaws;

(q) Exercise any power that may be exercised in the state by a legal entity of the same type as the Association;

(r) Exercise any other power necessary and proper for the governance and operation of the Association;

(s) By resolution, establish committees of Directors, permanent and standing, to perform any of the above functions under specifically delegated administrative standards as designated in the resolution establishing the committee. All committees must maintain and publish notice of their actions to Lot owners and the Executive Board. However, actions taken by a committee may be appealed to the Executive Board by any Lot owner within forty-five (45) days of publication of notice of that action, and the committee's action must be ratified, modified or rejected by the Executive Board at its next regular meeting.

2.3 Manager. The Executive Board may employ a Manager for East Cooper Court, at a compensation established by the Executive Board, to perform duties and services authorized by the Executive Board. The Executive Board may delegate to the Manager only the powers granted to the Executive Board by these Bylaws under Section 2.2, Subdivisions (c), (e), (g) and (h). Licenses and contracts may be executed by the Manager pursuant to specific resolutions of the Executive Board and to fulfill the requirements of the budget.

2.4 Removal of Directors. The Lot owners, by a majority vote of all persons present and entitled to vote, at any meeting of the Lot owners at which a quorum is present, may remove any Director of the Executive Board, other than a Director appointed by the Declarant, with or without cause.

2.5 Vacancies. Vacancies in the Executive Board, caused by any reason other than the removal of a Director by a vote of the Lot owners, may be filled at a special meeting of the Executive Board held for that purpose at any time after the occurrence of the vacancy, even though the Directors present at that meeting may constitute less than a quorum. These appointments shall be made in the following manner:

(a) As to vacancies of Directors whom Lot owners other than the Declarant elected, by a majority of the remaining elected Directors constituting the Executive Board; and

(b) As to vacancies of Directors whom the Declarant has the right to appoint, by the Declarant.

Each person so elected or appointed shall be a Director for the remainder of the term of the Director so replaced.

2.6 Regular Meetings. The first regular meeting of the Executive Board following each annual meeting of the Lot owners shall be held within ten (10) days after the annual meeting at a time and place to be set by the newly elected Directors present at the meeting at which the Executive Board shall have been elected. No notice shall be necessary to the newly elected Directors in order to legally constitute such meeting, provided a majority of the Directors are present. The Executive Board may set a schedule of additional regular meetings by resolution, and no further notice is necessary to constitute regular meetings.

2.7 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Executive Board may be called by the president or by any two (2) of the Directors on at least three (3) business days' notice to each Director. The Notice shall be hand delivered or mailed and shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

2.8 Location of Meetings. All meetings of the Executive Board shall be held within Pitkin County, Colorado, unless all Directors consent in writing to another location.

2.9 Waiver of Notice. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting in writing. Attendance by a Director at any meeting of the Executive Board shall constitute a waiver of notice. If all the Directors are present at any meeting, no notice shall be required, and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

2.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the Executive Board, a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute a decision of the Executive Board. If, at any meeting, there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

2.11 Consent to Corporate Action. If all the Directors or all Directors of a committee established for such purposes, as the case may be, severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the Association, and the number of the Directors constitutes a quorum, that action shall be a valid corporate action as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Executive Board or the committee, as the case may be. The secretary shall file these consents with the minutes of the meetings of the Executive Board.

2.12 Telephone Communication in Lieu of Attendance. A Director may attend a meeting of the Executive Board by using an electronic or telephonic communication method whereby the Director may be heard by the other members and may hear the deliberations of the other members on any matter properly brought before the Executive Board. The Director's vote shall be counted and the presence noted as if that Director were present in person on that particular matter.

ARTICLE 3 - MEETING OF MEMBERS

3.1 Annual Meeting. Annual meetings of members of the Association shall be held in Pitkin County, Colorado, during the month of _____ of each year at such date set forth in the notice. At these meetings, the Directors shall be elected by ballot of the members, in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 of the Bylaws. The members may transact other business as may properly come before them at these meetings.

3.2 Budget Meeting. Meetings of members to consider proposed budgets shall be called in accordance with the Act. The budget may be considered at Annual or Special Meetings called for other purposes as well.

3.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Association may be called by the president, by a majority of the members of the Executive Board or by members comprising twenty percent (20%) of the votes in the Association.

3.4 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the members shall be held in Pitkin County, Colorado, at a suitable place convenient to members, as may be designated by the Executive Board or the president.

3.5 Notice of Meetings. The secretary or other officer specified in the Bylaws shall cause notice of meetings of the members to be hand delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each Lot, as appears on file at the Pitkin County Assessor's Office, or to the mailing address designated in writing by the member, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days in advance of a meeting. No action shall be adopted at a meeting except as stated in the notice.

3.6 Waiver of Notice. Any member may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting of the members in writing, and the waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the receipt of notice.

3.7 Adjournment of Meeting. At any meeting of members, a majority of the members who are present at that meeting, either in person or in proxy, may adjourn the meeting to another time.

3.8 Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the members shall be as follows:

- (a) Roll call (or check-in procedure);
- (b) Proof of notice of meeting;
- (c) Reading of minutes of preceding meeting;
- (d) Reports;
- (e) Establish number and term of memberships of the Executive Board (if required and noticed);
- (f) Election of inspectors of election (when required);
- (g) Election of Directors of the Executive Board (when required);
- (h) Ratification of budget (if required and noticed);
- (i) Unfinished business; and
- (j) New business.

3.9 Voting.

(a) If only (1) one of several owners of a Lot is present at a meeting of the Association, the owner present is entitled to cast all the Votes allocated to the Lot. If more than one (1) of the owners are present, the Votes allocated to the Lot may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners. There is a majority agreement if any one (1) of the owners casts the Votes allocated to the Lot without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by another owner of the Lot.

(b) Votes allocated to a Lot may be cast under a proxy duly executed by a Lot owner. If a Lot is owned by more than one person, each owner of the Lot may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the Lot through a duly executed proxy. A Lot owner may revoke a proxy given under this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the Association. A proxy is void if it is not dated or purports to be revocable without notice. A proxy terminates one year after its date, unless it specifies a shorter term.

(c) The Vote of a corporation or business trust may be cast by any officer of that corporation or business trust in the absence of express notice of the designation of a specific person by the Executive Board of Directors or bylaws of the owning corporation or business trust. The Vote of a partnership may be cast by any general partner of the owning partnership in the absence of express notice of the designation of a specific person by the owning partnership. The moderator of the meeting may require reasonable evidence that a person voting on behalf of a corporation, partnership or business trust owner is qualified to vote.

(d) Votes allocated to a Lot owned by the Association may not be cast.

3.10 Quorum. The holders of a majority of the total member's votes entitled to be cast thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be requested to and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise expressly provided by law or by these Bylaws or the Declaration.

3.11 Majority Vote. The Vote of a majority of the members present in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present shall be binding upon all members for all purposes except where a higher percentage Vote is required in the Declaration, these Bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE 4 - OFFICERS

4.1 Designation. The principal officers of the Association shall be the president, the vice president, the secretary and the treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Executive Board. The Executive Board may appoint an assistant treasurer, an assistant secretary and other officers as it finds necessary. The president and vice president, but no other officers, need to be Directors. Any two offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. The office of vice president may be vacant.

4.2 Election of Officers. The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Executive Board at the organizational meeting of each new Executive Board. They shall hold office at the pleasure of the Executive Board.

4.3 Removal of Officers. Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause. A successor may be elected at any regular meeting of the Executive Board or at any special meeting of the Executive Board called for that purpose.

4.4 President. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. The president shall preside at all meetings of the members and of the Executive Board. The president shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Colorado, including but not limited to the power to appoint committees from among the members from time to time as the president may decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association. The president may fulfill the role of treasurer in the absence of the treasurer. The president may cause to be prepared and may execute amendments, attested by the secretary, to the Declaration and these Bylaws on behalf of the Association, following authorization or approval of the particular amendment as applicable.

4.5 Vice President. The vice president shall take the place of the president and perform the president's duties whenever the president is absent or unable to act. If neither the president nor the vice president is able to act, the Executive Board shall appoint some other Director to act in the place of the president on an interim basis. The vice president shall also perform other duties imposed by the Executive Board or by the president.

4.6 Secretary. The secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Lot owners and the Executive Board. The secretary shall have charge of the Association's books and papers as the Executive Board may direct and shall perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary of a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Colorado. The secretary may cause to be prepared and may attest to execution by the president of amendments to the Declaration and the Bylaws on behalf of the Association, following authorization or approval of the particular amendment as applicable.

4.7 Treasurer. The treasurer shall be responsible for Association funds and securities, for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account showing all receipts and disbursements and for the preparation of all required financial data. This officer shall be responsible for the deposit of all monies and other valuable effects in depositories designated by the Executive Board and shall perform all the duties incident to the office of treasurer of a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Colorado. The treasurer may endorse on behalf of the Association, for collection only, checks, notes and their obligations and shall deposit the same and all monies in the name of and to the credit of the Association in banks designated by the Executive Board. Except for reserve funds described below, the treasurer may have custody of and shall have the power to endorse for transfer, on behalf of the Association, stock, securities or other investment instruments owned or controlled by the Association or as fiduciary for others. Reserve funds of the Association shall be deposited in segregated accounts or in prudent investments, as the Executive Board decides. Funds may be withdrawn from these reserves for the purposes for which they were deposited, by check or order, authorized by the treasurer, and executed by two (2) Directors, one (1) of whom may be the treasurer if the treasurer is also a Director.

4.8 Agreements, Contracts, Deeds, Checks, Etc. Except as provided in Sections 4.4, 4.6, 4.7 and 4.9 of these Bylaws, all agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks and other instruments of the Association shall be executed by an officer of the Association or by any other person or persons designated by the Executive Board.

4.9 Statements of Unpaid Assessments. The treasurer, assistant treasurer, a manager employed by the Association or, in their absence, any officer having access to the books and records of the Association may prepare, certify and execute statements of unpaid assessments, in accordance with Section 316 of the Act.

The Association may charge a reasonable fee for preparing statements of unpaid assessments. The amount of this fee and the time of payment shall be established by resolution of the Executive Board. Any unpaid fees may be assessed as a common expense against the Lot for which the certificate or statement is furnished.

ARTICLE 5 - ENFORCEMENT

5.1 Abatement and Enjoinment of Violations of Members. The violation of any of the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Executive Board or the breach of any provision of the Declaration shall give the Executive Board the right, after notice and hearing, except in case of an emergency, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Bylaws:

(a) To enter the Lot upon which the violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Lot owner, any structure, thing or condition that is existing and creating a danger to the Common Elements contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions of the Declaration. The Executive Board shall not be deemed liable for any manner of trespass by this action; or

(b) To enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach.

5.2 Fine for Violation. By resolution, following notice and hearing, the Executive Board may levy a fine of up to One Hundred and No/100 Dollars ($100.00) per day for each day that a violation of the Declaration or Rules persists after notice and hearing, but this amount shall not exceed that amount necessary to insure compliance with the rule or order of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE 6 - INDEMNIFICATION

The Directors and officers of the Association shall have the liabilities, and be entitled to indemnification, as provided in Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act and the Articles of Incorporation, the provisions of which are incorporated by reference and made a part of this document.

ARTICLE 7 - RECORDS

7.1 Records and Audits. The Association shall maintain financial records. The cost of any audit shall be a common expense.

7.2 Examination. All records maintained by the Association or the Manager shall be available for examination and copying by any member, any holder of a security interest in a Lot or its insurer or guarantor, or by any of their duly authorized agents or attorneys, at the expense of the person examining the records, during normal business hours after reasonable notice.

7.3 Records. The Association shall keep the following records:

(a) An account for each Lot, which shall designate the name and address of each Lot owner, the name and address of each mortgagee who has given notice to the Association that it holds a mortgage on the Lot, the amount of each common expense assessment, the dates on which each assessment comes due, the amounts paid on the account and the balance due;

(b) An account for each Lot owner showing any other fees payable by the Lot owner;

(c) A record of any capital expenditures in excess of Three Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($3,000.00) approved by the Executive Board for the current and next two (2) succeeding fiscal years;

(d) A record of the amount and an accurate account of the current balance of any reserves for capital expenditures, replacement and emergency repairs, together with the amount of those portions of reserves designated by the Association for a specific project;

(e) The most recent regularly prepared balance sheet and expense statement, if any, of the Association;

(f) The current operating budget adopted pursuant to Section 315(1) of the Act and ratified pursuant to the procedures of Section 303(4) of the Act;

(g) A record of any unsatisfied judgments against the Association and the existence of any pending suits in which the Association is a defendant;

(h) A record of insurance coverage provided for the benefit of Lot owners and the Association;

(i) A record of any violations, with respect to any portion of East Cooper Court, of health, safety, fire or building codes or laws, ordinances, or regulations of which the Executive Board has knowledge;

(j) A record of the actual cost, irrespective of discounts and allowances, of the maintenance of the Common Elements;

(k) Balance sheets and other records required by corporate law;

(l) Tax returns for state and federal income taxation;

(m) Minutes of proceedings of incorporators, members, Directors, committees of Directors and waivers of notice;

(n) A copy of the most current versions of the Declaration, Bylaws, Rules and resolutions of the Executive Board, along with their exhibits and schedules.

ARTICLE 8 - MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Notices. All notices to the Association or the Executive Board shall be delivered to the office of the Manager, or, if there is no Manager, to the office of the Association, or to such other address as the Executive Board may designate by written notice to all Lot owners and to all holders of security interests in the Lots who have notified the Association that they hold a security interest in a Lot. Except as otherwise provided, all notices to any Lot owner shall be sent to the Lot owner's address as it appears in the records of the Association. All notices to holders of security interests in the Lots shall be sent, except where a different manner of notice is specified elsewhere in these Bylaws or the Declaration, by registered or certified mail to their respective addresses, as designated by them in writing to the Association. All notices shall be deemed to have been given when mailed, except notices of changes of address, which shall be deemed to have been given when received.

8.2 Fiscal Year. The Executive Board shall establish the fiscal year of the Association.

8.3 Waiver. No restriction, condition, obligation or provision contained in these Bylaws shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

8.4 Office. The principal office of the Association shall be at such other place as the Executive Board may from time to time designate.

8.5 Working Capital. A working capital fund is to be established in the amount of two (2) months' regularly budgeted initial common expense assessments, measured as of the date of the first assessment on the first phase, for all Lots as they are created in proportion to their respective allocated interests in common expenses. Any amounts paid into this fund shall not be considered as advance payment of assessments. Each Lot's share of the working capital fund may be collected and then contributed to the Association by the Declarant at the time the sale of the Lot is closed or at the termination of Declarant control. Until paid to the Association, the contribution to the working capital shall be considered an unpaid common expense assessment, with a lien on the Declarant's unsold Lots pursuant to the Act. Until termination of Declarant control of the Executive Board, the working capital shall be deposited without interest in a segregated fund. While the Declarant is in control of the Executive Board, the Declarant cannot use any of the working capital funds to defray its expenses, reserve contributions or construction costs or to make up budget deficits.

8.6 Reserves. As a part of the adoption of the regular budget the Executive Board shall include an amount which, in its reasonable business judgment, will establish and maintain an adequate reserve fund for the replacement of improvements to the Common Elements that it is obligated to maintain, based upon the project's age, remaining life and the quantity and replacement cost of major Common Element improvements.

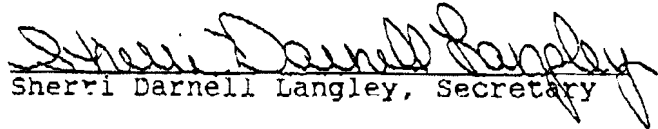

ARTICLE 9 - AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

9.1 The Bylaws may be amended only by vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Executive Board, following notice and comment to all Lot owners.

9.2 No amendment of the Bylaws of this Association shall be adopted which would affect or impair the validity or priority of

9.2 No amendment of the Bylaws of this Association shall be adopted which would affect or impair the validity or priority of any mortgage covering any Lot or which would change the provisions of the Bylaws with respect to institutional mortgagees or records.

ATTEST: Certified to be the Bylaws adopted by Consent of the Directors of East Cooper Court Homeowners Association, Inc. dated _____, 1995.
